MLS: A Diverse League

Major League Soccer leads the way in diversity in North American professional team sports

Major League Soccer continues to be the most diverse league in North American professional team sports.

As of March 20, 2011, more than 62 percent of MLS players were born in the United States or Canada, but the total number of countries represented by place of birth – 57 – is the most of any of the “Big Five” sports leagues. The NBA, with players from 40 countries, is next. About 38 percent of current MLS players were born outside the USA and Canada; Major League Baseball is next at 26 percent.

The map on the next pages shows countries with federations recognized by FIFA.

Players are listed under the country that currently governs the city where they were born (some places have changed sovereignty since birth years). Players may represent a different national team than their country of birth – FIFA uses citizenship to determine eligibility for national team competitions

Of the current MLS players born outside the United States and Canada, approximately 39 percent are from Central and South America, 25 percent are from Europe, 19 percent are from Africa, and 14 percent are from Caribbean nations.

Thierry Henry of the New York Red Bulls won the 1998 FIFA World Cup with France.

Courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau, official statistician for all five leagues, here is a breakdown:

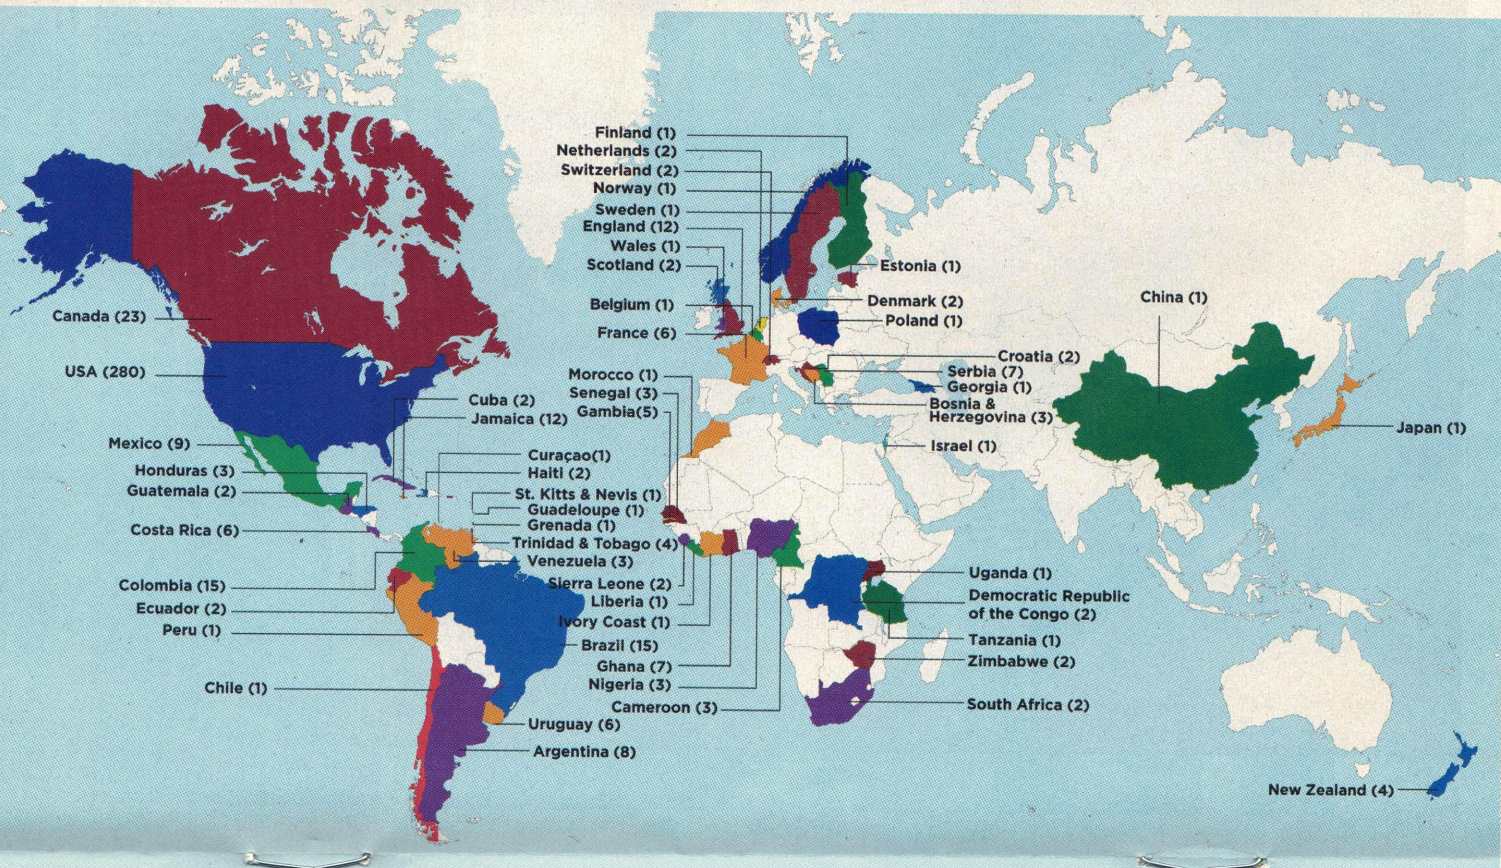

League (Year)	Total Players	Born Outside USA/Canada	Countries of Birth*
MLS (2011)	487	184 (38%)	57

Latinoamericanos a seguir

Aproximadamente, el 39 por ciento de los jugadores de la MLS, que nacieron por fuera de los EE.UU. y Canadá, son de Centro y Suramérica. Entre ellos, Brasil y Colombia son los países que más futbolistas registran, con un total de 15; seguidos por México, con nueve, y Argentina con ocho jugadores, cada uno.

Los 11 latinoamericanos a seguir en el 2011:

FARYD MONDRAGÓN

NACIONALIDAD: Colombiana

POSICION: Arquero

EQUIPO: Philadelphia Union (2011 - Presente)

Mondragón tendrá que probar en la cancha esta temporada por qué el Philadelphia Union estuvo dispuesto a traerlo desde Alemania, apostando por su seguridad bajo los tres palos como parte de su plan para obtener el título.

RAFAEL MÁRQUEZ

NACIONALIDAD: Mexicana

POSICION: Defensa

EQUIPO: New York Red Bulls (2010 - Presente)

Después de llegar a mitad de temporada en 2010, los New York Red Bulls cuentan con Márquez como uno de los que comandará el equipo, desde su posición de defensa central, hacia el título que la franquicia tanto desea.

ROGER ESPINOZA

NACIONALIDAD: Hondureña/Americana

POSICION: Mediocampista

EQUIPO: Sporting Kansas City (2008 - Presente)

Espinoza tratará de demostrar todo su poderío en el mediocampo formando una dupla letal con el delantero mexicano Omar Bravo, esperando traerle goles y títulos a la afición de Kansas City en esta temporada.

DAVID FERREIRA

NACIONALIDAD: Colombiana

POSICION: Mediocampista

EQUIPO: FC Dallas (2009 - Presente)

Este año Ferreira tendrá hambre de triunfo tras haber perdido la Copa MLS la temporada pasada, y ser coronado como el Jugador Más Valioso de la Liga. Su equipo se aferrará a su liderazgo y talento para que pueda conducirlos de nuevo a la final.

ANDY NAJAR

NACIONALIDAD: Hondureña

POSICION: Mediocampista

EQUIPO: D.C. United (2010 - Presente)

El 2011 será el año de la consolidación para Nájar, tanto nacional como internacionalmente. Sin considerarse novato, Nájar tendrá que probar porqué es considerado una de las joyas de la Liga. D.C. United contará con su talento para lograr el título, ajeno al United desde el 2004.

El hondureño Andy Najar del D.C. United es una de las promesas del fútbol de la MLS.

JUAN AGUDELO

NACIONALIDAD: Colombiana/Americana

POSICION: Delantero

EQUIPO: New York Red Bulls (2007 - Presente)

Ante la ausencia en los New York Red Bulls de Juan Pablo Ángel, Agudelo se postula como la pareja perfecta en la delantera para Thierry Henry en una combinación de veteranía y juventud que impulsaría a los Red Bulls a luchar por el título. Agudelo está en las canchas esta temporada para asegurarse un puesto en su equipo y en la selección estadounidense.

JUAN PABLO ÁNGEL

NACIONALIDAD: Colombiana

POSICION: Delantero

EQUIPO: LA Galaxy (2011 - Presente)

Ángel jugará cada partido como una final, pues se espera que con los internacionales Landon Donovan y David Beckham hagan un trío temible para los defensores en la MLS. Desde ya el LA Galaxy se postula como el equipo de las estrellas en esta liga.

OMAR BRAVO

NACIONALIDAD: Mexicana

POSICION: Delantero

EQUIPO: Sporting Kansas City (2011 - Presente)

Omar Bravo del Sporting Kansas City ha ganado el título de goleador en la Primera División Mexicana.

Después de un breve paso por Deportivo La Coruña y regresar a México, Bravo debe estar ansioso por destacarse en una nueva liga, anotando goles que lo hicieran famoso jugando para el Club Guadalajara, apoyado por Roger Espinoza y Teal Bunbury en lo que será un triente muy exitoso en Sporting Kansas City.

FREDY MONTERO

NACIONALIDAD: Colombiana

POSICION: Delantero

EQUIPO: Seattle Sounders FC (2009 - Presente)

En esta nueva temporada Montero nos demostrará su talento de nuevo algo a lo que nos tiene acostumbrados desde su llegada a la MLS. Con un equipo plagado de talento Montero no solo querrá liderar a su club a la final de la Copa MLS con sus goles pero también recibir un llamado a su selección nacional para la Copa América 2011.

ALEJANDRO MORENO

NACIONALIDAD: Venezolana

POSICION: Delantero

EQUIPO: Chivas USA (2011 - Presente)

Ahora con Chivas USA, este jugador de la "vinotinto" demostrará que es uno de los goleadores más letales en la liga, pues para la Copa América en Argentina de este año, Moreno espera ser seleccionado para jugar con Venezuela.

ÁLVARO SABORÍO

NACIONALIDAD: Costarricense

POSICION: Delantero

EQUIPO: Real Salt Lake (2010 - Presente)

El Tico aportará no solo su olfato goleador sino toda su experiencia internacional al equipo. Saborío estará afinando puntería en preparación para la Copa Oro que disputará junto con su selección en el 2011. Además es la carta goleadora de Real Salt Lake, tanto en la MLS como en la Liga Campeones de CONCACAF.

Reserve League Returns

Major League Soccer's Reserve League is relaunched this year, providing more developmental opportunities for players

Major League Soccer has re-launched its Reserve League in 2011. The MLS Reserve League provides essential developmental opportunities to players and is made possible by the growth of first team rosters from 24 in 2010 to 30 players in 2011.

MLS clubs previously fielded reserve sides from 2005-08, benefiting players such as 2010 Budweiser Golden Boot winner Chris Wondolowski as well as Omar Cummings, Jeff Larentowicz and Kosuke Kimura of the MLS champion Colorado Rapids, and many other active players.

The new MLS Reserve League will be split into East, Central and West divisions with teams facing each divisional opponent twice for a total of 10 games per team. Clubs may schedule additional games for their reserve squads against non-MLS opponents. The games featuring two MLS reserve teams began March 20 and conclude October 16.

The full MLS Reserve League schedule is below. Fans are encouraged to contact the home club prior to attending any MLS Reserve League match.
