GREG VANNEY
#3 DEFENDER

A veteran defender who is in his second spell with the Galaxy, he was acquired by the club in February from D.C. United in exchange for Quavas Kirk. He has appeared in 17 of the Galaxy's 22 games so far this season, playing as a left back and a center back. Capable of striking one of the best set pieces in the league, Vanney is the seventh leading scorer in Galaxy history with 21 goals, all of which were scored during his first spell with the club between 1996-2001. A veteran presence on the Galaxy's young backline, Vanney earned all but three of his 37 caps with the U.S. National Team under Bruce Arena.

CLINT MATHIS
#84 MIDFIELDER

Clint Mathis is a member of the Galaxy. Mathis will look to impact a level of revenge on his former club when he takes the field for Real Salt Lake. The Utah-based club acquired Mathis' rights from the Galaxy last month after he spent six months with Ergotelis FC of the Greek SuperLeague. After the end of the Greek season, Mathis spent a month training with the Galaxy, but did not sign with the club. He played 65 games in two and a half years with the Galaxy from 1998-2000, before briefly returning to the club in November 2007, when he scored in LA's 4-1 win over the Wellington Phoenix in New Zealand.

FUN FACT! Get to Know: Ely Allen, Midfielder, LA Galaxy

A naturally left-sided player who is capable of plying upfront or in the midfield, Allen has impressed during his rookie season in MLS. Born in Alaska but raised in Washington, Allen was taken by the Galaxy in the second round of the 2008 MLS SuperDraft. He scored the first official goal of the preseason, tallying in the opening minutes against Sydney FC at the Pan Pacific Championship in Hawaii. He followed that up with his first regular season goal in the 3-2 win over Colorado on June 7.

MLS Cup 2008 will be held at The Home Depot Center on Sunday, November 23 @ 12pm
